JANUARY 27, 2004

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO INDICTED FOR CONSPIRING TO DISTRIBUTE METHAMPHETAMINE

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that two defendants were indicted by a federal grand jury today for conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

Eric W. Moberly, 37, and Melissa S. McGee, 33, both of Kansas City, Mo., were charged in a four-count indictment returned by a federal grand jury in Kansas City.

Count One of the federal indictment alleges that both defendants conspired to distribute methamphetamine between Sept. 1, 2002, and May 15, 2003.

Counts Two, Three and Four of the federal indictment allege three separate instances in which the co-defendants aided and abetted each other in distributing methamphetamine on Sept. 18, 2002, Jan. 18, 2003, and May 15, 2003.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Kate Mahoney. It was investigated by the Kansas City, Mo., Metro Meth Task Force.

Graves cautioned that the charges contained in the indictment are simply accusations, and not evidence of guilt. Evidence supporting the charges must be presented to a federal trial jury, whose duty is to determine guilt or innocence.
